All children have a safe and healthy start to develop cognitively, physically, socially and emotionally. Communities are safe from violence and crime. Families have access to resources and support needed for healthy child development.

All children reading at grade level by age 8—the age at which reading to learn, and not just learning to read, becomes essential. Youth and young adults have multiple postsecondary education options.

Youth and young adults have access to employment opportunities to support themselves and their families. Youth and young adults receive the education and training preparation needed for quality jobs of today and tomorrow.

Justice Systems are fair, equitable and restorative. Youth, adults and families engaged in justice systems have a second chance. Access to necessary resources, support services, and meaningful civic engagement opportunities is available to all.

CORE VALUES

- 1 We commit to SERVE. Each member contributing toward the greater good for boys and men of color in order to accomplish our goals. We serve with intention, action and impact.
- 2 We PERSEVERE. We will not be deterred and we will not give up on our young men.
- 3 We operate with a spirit of HUMILITY. We come to the work of this collaborative with a full expression of respect, understanding and humility toward one another.
- 4 We are stronger TOGETHER. We collaborate across silos, integrating our efforts to maximize effectiveness, with transparency, openness and accountability
