Sacramento Area Congregations Together (Sacramento ACT) is a multi-racial, multi-faith organization that advocates for transformation of the community, equipping people to effectively identify and change conditions to create justice and equity in Sacramento County. With a focus on communities of color that have experienced historical discrimination and disinvestment, Sacramento ACT’s organizing is grounded in the conviction that equity must drive public policy.

KEY JUVENILE JUSTICE DATA

- Sacramento County has double the state rate of:
  - imprisonments per 1,000 juvenile felony arrests
  - prosecutorial transfers of youth to adult criminal court per 1,000 juvenile felony arrests
  - prosecutorial direct files in adult criminal court per 1,000 felony arrests

- The rate of imprisonments per 100,000 youth age 10 to 17 is 25% higher than the state rate
- The rate of total juvenile incarcerations per 1,000 juvenile felony arrests is 28% higher than the state rate